Court of Appeals of Kentucky. March 29, 1963. *243 Turner & Turner, Murray, for appellant. Chas. E. Talley, Murray, for appellee. VANCE, Commissioner. This is a workmen's compensation case. The employee, Briscoe, was admitted to the hospital, after being injured on his job, in the City of Murray. He was given an award for total disability and, on appeal, the award was affirmed by the Commonwealth Court. Upon the employer's petition for a rehearing before the same court, this court's mandate was recalled, and the award was vacated, the circuit court having made an independent finding that the employee was not entitled to permanent total disability. The employee, after leaving the hospital, was treated by a
